

Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies

LECTURE SERIES FRONTIERS OF FORENSIC SCIENCE

Forensic archeological and human taphonomy expertise in the Netherlands

Friday September 22, 2017
15:00 - 17:00

Location:
UvA Science Park,
Building 904, Room C0.110

Free admission
To attend, please mail to:
fs-iis-science@uva.nl

15:00 - 15:30

Roelof-Jan Oostra

(Academic Medical Center/University of Amsterdam)

'The making of a human taphonomy facility in Amsterdam'

15:30 - 16:00

Mike Groen

(Netherlands Forensic Institute, University of Leiden)

'Forensic archaeology and taphonomy:
two sides of the same coin'

16:00 - 16:30

Mark Lüschen

(Dutch Police)

'Finding buried human remains with geophysics'

16:30 - 17:00

Tristan Krap

(Academic Medical Center/University of Amsterdam)

'Taphonomy of juvenile remains'

17:00 - 18:00

Social Drink